

Annual Picinic, 2008

The Annual Picinic of CTDOA for the year 2008 was organized on 2nd February, 2008 at Lumtex Jute Mill, Titagarh. About one hundred and fifty members along with their families joined in the revelry along the pristine riverside of the Ganges. "Fun games" and music by Amar-Sabyasachi enthralled the crowd.

Basking under the pleasant winter sun, and with every breath freshened by the breeze from the river, the mind and spirit were elevated to a newer high of enjoyment. From children to adults, all participated in the fun games and enjoyed equally. As we returned home by sunset, we took some very nice memories of the outing with us.
